FLOG: FORE THE LOVE OF GOLF

Cambridge, Ontario, Canada: Flog World Inc, 2001. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. Was stamped for An entry for the "Stephen Leacock Award" for humour for 2002. From the Author Golf is a great sport that frustrates the hell out of millions of people. Most golfers are in denial about their game. It is indeed a long way from the practice range to the first tee. Yet each year, everyday golfers, convinced there is a short cut, will pay whatever it takes for the latest equipment that they honestly believe will transform them into the "Office Champion" seemingly overnight. More people should do as Tiger Woods does, play their best, and above all, have FUN!!! From the Inside Flap The Birth Of A Sport Golf. It all began in the rolling purple hills of the Scottish highlands. We cannot say exactly how it happened, but we can guess. Perhaps a kilted Scot was standing one cool day upon the bleak windswept heath, leaning upon his gnarled walking stick, with nothing to do but watch over his flock of sheep. At his feet was a round pebble. In the distance, a rabbit hole. "Ah, Hamish," he said to himself, eyeing these objects, "Would ye care to play a wee game Ive just thought of." "Och, Ive the time to spare," he replied. And so he played the first round of a new game in Gaelic they call it dhuichcachgh. The English translation, "Chase a sheep to the rabbit hole, and hit it with a stick, then throw the round rock at it". It was a good game but not a great game. The shepherd tried new games games like Impale the Sheep on a Stick, and Mc-Kendo, the Scottish art of stick-to-stick combat. In his lonely vigil, he also discovered the dark...
