He eagerly listened as the sound-man placed the needle down, only to find that through the tubes he held to his ears came the chilling sounds of a lynching. In this story, w/ its blend of new technology & old hatreds, genteel picnics & mob violence, Edward Ayers captures the history of the South in the years between Reconstruction & the turn of the century. Ranging from the Georgia coast to the Tennessee mountains, from the power brokers to tenant farmers, Ayers depicts a land...
